§ 15. The said legion shall be authorized to purchase, lease, or otherwise hold such real estate as may be necessary for the preservation of its ordnance and arms, or as may be deemed convenient for the meetings and exercise of its members, and for the manufacture and storage of the proper ammunition and other military stores. They may also adopt some appropriate motto, and may have and use a common seal.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

§ 1. The militia of this State shall rendezvous as follows, viz:
By companies, on the fourth Saturday in April and September in each year. By battalions—the first battalion of each regiment on the Friday before the last Saturday in May, and the second battalion on the last Saturday of said month.

The commanding officers of the several brigades shall prescribe the days on which the regimental and extra battalions shall meet in the month of October, annually, also the time of drill of officers in the month of September, in each year, having due regard to the convenience of the brigade inspector, and shall notify the commanding officer of each regiment and extra battalion of the days on which the same are to be, on or before the first day of August next, whose duty it shall be to notify each commanding officer of companies of the same, on or before the first day of September next, and the days thus prescribed shall be the stated days of regimental, extra battalion and drill musters, from all times afterwards.

§ 2. For the purpose of notifying the non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of the several companies to attend the above named musters, the commandant of each company shall issue his order to one or more of his non-commissioned officers requiring him or them to notify all persons to attend on the days above prescribed, at some suitable place as near the centre of his command as practicable, and battalion and regimental musters and drill of officers at such place or places as the commander of the regiment may designate.

§ 3. The commandants of regiments shall notify the commissioned officers first of the place, at which the battalion and drill of officers and regimental parades will be held, on or before the first day of April next. He shall, also, cause all field and staff officers to be notified of the time and places of mustering for the year 1839

§ 4. No commission officer shall be required to notify or cause to be notified any portion of the militia of this State after the year 1839. The first section of this act, which prescribes the days of parade, shall be considered a legal notice to all intents and purposes for all succeeding years.

§ 5. Any person failing to attend any of the foregoing parades, as required by law, the commander of each company shall cause him or them to be notified of the court of assessment in the same manner as is now required by law to attend any parade of the militia, and return a true list of all such absentees to the commander of the regiment, on or before the first day of November in each year, whose duty it shall be to lay the same before the regimental court of assessment on the first day of its sitting.

§ 6. The commander of each battalion and regiment shall make out a true list of all delinquencies of officers under his command, as well on account of absence, as for want of equipment, and return the same to the regimental court of assessment, on the first day thereof, in each year.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of each commander of companies to read, or cause to be read so much of this act as relates to the time of the several musters, at each company parade; the several commanders are hereby authorized to take any excuse for delinquencies, if, in his opinion, such excuse would acquit said delinquent before a court of assessment.

§ 8. Any volunteer company, that is now or may hereafter be organized, shall be required to do duty as such, for the term of three years, but shall not be called into actual service for a longer time than six months, without once being discharged.

§ 9. That when it may be necessary to call any portion of the infantry of this State into actual service, the call shall be for volunteers for a certain time to be specified, not to exceed six months, who shall have the liberty of electing their own officers from a Major General down to the lowest officer in the line, who shall be commissioned by the Governor, non-commissioned officers excepted, unless in great emergencies; in that event they may take command without first receiving their commission.

§ 10. In case the number required cannot be raised by volunteer enlistment, they shall proceed to draft, and the senior officer shall take command.

§ 11. When any portion of the militia of this State shall be called into service, there shall in no case be a greater number of officers ordered into service than are now allotted to the militia as now organized.

§ 12. When any portion of the militia are so situated as to have to cross any stream or water course, that is impassable, other than ferrying, or on a toll bridge, they shall not be required to pay such ferryman or keeper of such bridge, in going to or returning from any muster, or other place of military meeting known of as such.

§ 13. All [and every] such ferryman or keeper of a toll bridge, shall make out a true list of every man so ferried, or who has crossed on any toll bridge, and present the same to the county court of his county, accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the time and number so conveyed across such water course. The said court shall adjust such claims, and certify the same to the Auditor of Public Accounts, who shall draw his warrant on the State Treasury for the same, in favor of such claimant, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

§ 14. Regimental or battalion courts of assessment, shall be held in each battalion and regiment on the fourth Monday in November annually, which shall be composed of not less than five nor more than nine commissioned officers, to be regularly detailed by the commandant of the regiment, or extra battalion, as the case may be; a majority of the members detailed shall constitute a quorum to do business, and the officer highest in rank shall be president thereof; and if a sufficient number of the members do not attend on the day aforesaid, the court shall stand adjourned from day to day, until a quorum is assembled, if that shall happen within three days. All regimental courts of assessment shall sit and transact their business with open doors.

§ 15. And the commanding officer of the regiment may detail any additional number of members to supply deficiencies, and may order such court to be assembled and held at any other time or place, whenever, by the failure of such annual meeting, or otherwise, it shall become necessary; and when a sufficient number of members appear, the judge advocate shall administer to each of them the following oath:

§ 16. You and each of you do solemnly swear or affirm, (as the case may be,) that you will diligently enquire into the several delinquencies which may be reported to you, and that you will, without partiality or prejudice, decide upon the same according to law, to the best of your knowledge and belief; so help you God.

§ 17. The regimental court of assessment shall try all delinquencies of captains, and all below that grade, the fines of which shall go to the use of the regiment to which they belong.

§ 18. The judge advocate of all courts of assessments shall faithfully record all proceedings of such courts, setting forth the persons against whom fines are assessed, and the amount, and for what cause.

§ 19. The judge advocate shall, within ten days after the setting of any court of assessment, make out three fair copies of all sums assessed, for the use of the regiment, and deliver them to the commandant of the regiment or extra battalion, whose duty it shall be to deliver one of said copies to the sheriff of the county for collection, and take his receipt for the amount of said list on each of the other two, one of which shall be delivered to the paymaster, the other to be retained by himself, for the inspection of such persons as may wish to examine the same.

§ 20. The sheriff shall proceed to collect the amount of all sums delivered to him as aforesaid, and pay over the same to the paymaster of the regiment the amount so collected, on or before the first day of May next following.

§ 21. The said sheriff shall be allowed, for the collection of said list, the sum of twelve and one-half per cent. for all sums by him collected, to be paid out of the regimental funds. Any sheriff, for neglect of duty in the collection of any list as above mentioned, shall pay the amount of said list with twenty per cent. thereon, to be recovered in the circuit court of his respective county.

§ 22. Should any sheriff fail to collect and pay over to the paymaster of any regiment or extra battalion, the amount put into his hands for collection, the paymaster shall cause suit to be brought as above mentioned, in the name of the regiment, for the use and benefit of the same; should there be damage found against such sheriff, he shall pay all damage and cost as other debts are now collected in civil suits in such courts.

§ 23. If any sheriff shall be unable to collect any fine imposed on any individual, he shall lay in his claim to the paymaster, and if he considers his excuse good for not collecting the same, he shall give him credit for the same, on the amount put in his hands for collection, subject, however, to the decision of the next court of assessment for his regiment. Where any deduction is claimed, as above stated, the paymaster shall lay such claim before the next court of assessment for their decision, and shall abide the same.

§ 24. The paymaster of regiments shall pay to claimants only on an order or orders from the commanding officer of his regiment or extra battalion, as the case may be, only having regard to priority of claims, as directed by the said commandant.

§ 25. The court, when convened, shall have all the powers that are now granted by law to such courts, for the execution of their business, regulating courts of assessment or courts martial, passed 6th February, 1837

§ 26 If any major general shall fail to make out and transmit to the proper officer his annual report, he shall forfeit and pay seventy-five dollars. Any brigadier general, who shall fail to make out and transmit his annual report in due time to the proper officer, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars. Any colonel, for failing to make out his annual report to the proper officer in due time, shall forfeit and pay twenty-five dollars. Any captain for failing to make his annual report, shall forfeit and pay ten dollars. Any fine incurred by any officer specified in this act, or the act to which this is amendatory, shall be recovered as other fines

§ 27. Any officer, who shall be guilty of habitual drunkenness, or conduct unbecoming an officer, shall be fined one hundred dollars and removed from office, or either of the above named penalties, as a court martial shall decide.

§ 28. No major general shall receive pay as such, when in command of any portion of the militia engaged in the service of the State, unless he shall be in command of at least two thousand men, rank and file.

§ 29. No brigadier general shall receive pay as such, unless he shall be in command of at least one thousand men, rank and file

§ 30. No colonel shall receive pay as such, unless he shall be in command of at least five hundred men, rank and file

§ 31. No lieutenant colonel or major shall receive pay as such, unless he shall be in command of at least two hundred and fifty men, rank and file.

§ 32. No captain shall receive pay as such, unless he shall be in command of at least fifty men, rank and file.

§ 33. Each and every officer, hereafter to be elected, shall be elected by the qualified voters of, and reside within the bounds of his command.

§ 34 All laws and parts of laws, conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

the militia of such State or Territory, every offender shall, on conviction of every such offence, forfeit and pay a fine of fifty dollars."

No package sent by the mail can exceed three pounds, as decided by the Post Master General in 1836.

BOND REQUIRED.

The following is the form of a bond to be given by a company as required by the quarter-master general.

Know all men by these presents, that I, (A. B.) as principal, and (C. D.) as surities, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Missouri, in the sum of ———— dollars, the which payment well and truly to be made to the said State of Missouri, we jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, &c, firmly by these presents, sealed and signed this day of in the year

The condition of the above bond is this: That whereas the Governor of the State of Missouri has this day loaned to the above band, (A. B,) captain of, (here state the name of company, regiment, brigade, division, &c.: state the number of arms and description,) with their accoutrements, all complete, and in good order and condition. Now then if the said A. B,, or his said surities, shall take all proper care of said arms, accoutrements, and shall safely keep and return the same to the Governor of the State of Missouri, at the Seat of Government, for said State, or deliver the same to his order, at any time when so required, in the like good order and condition, free from charge, ordinary wear and injury, in the lawful use of the same only excepted, then the above bond to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

MISSOURI:

OFFICE OF ADJUTANT GENERAL,
City of Jefferson, February 8th, 1844.

To the Officers commanding the Militia of the State of Missouri:

I am aware, from my short experience in the discharge of the duties of Adjutant General, that there are several duties daily devolving upon you, which are not plainly and definitely laid down in our militia system. Beliving that if some of the difficulties produced by the faulty system under which you act were removed, it would prove highly beneficial to the strength and discipline of the militia, I have thought this a favorable opportunity to inform you of some of the rules I have adopted, where the law is ambig-nous, or partially or totally silent, upon some very important duties, concomitant with your several offices.

I would call your attention, in the first place, to the rule I have adopted in relation to the commissioning of the officers elected by volunteer companies. I have thought proper to commission these officers, whenever the colonel of the regiment to which they belong, or some field officer equal or superior in rank, shall certify to the commander-in-chief, that the company has organized according to law: he having approved the by-laws adopted for its government. This, I believe, is the true intent and spirit of the law.

In relation to the loaning of the arms, belonging to the State, to volunteer companies, as is authorized by the XV article of the act of '37, to regulate, govern and discipline the militia, I have with the advice and consent of the commander in-chief, adopted the following regulations, to wit:

That when any volunteer company has complied with the requisitions above stated, and the colonel of the regiment to which it belongs, or some field officer equal, or superior in rank, shall certify to the commander-in-chief that the company is in full uniform, it will be furnished with arms by complying with the following:

The company must give bond with security, to be approved by the major or a brigadier general of the division, for the safe keeping and return of the arms; which bond must be in double the amount of the value of the arms loaned. It must be stated to what place, and to whose care the arms shall be sent; and all expenses incurred in transportation must be defrayed by the company. The bond, after approval, as above required, must be sent to the quartermaster general of the State.*

There appears, also, to be some misunderstanding relative to the act of Congress, concerning the franking of letters and packages on military matters; in consequence of which, the State is often subjected to unnecessay expense. I have therefore caused the law upon this subject, to be appended to this re-publication.†

Before I conclude, I would respectfully request the officers, who are required by law to make out and transmit to this department annual returns of the strength and condition of their respective brigades and divisions, to make out and transmit the same, on or before the fifteenth day of December in each year. The reasonableness of this request will be very apparent, when I state that the law of the United States requires me to make out and transmit to the Adjutant General of the United States, by the first day of January in each year, a certified return of the strength and condition of the militia of this State.

It is highly important, that every officer should make a full and perfect return of the strength and condition of his command. By the act of Congress of 1808, for arming the militia, our State receives her annual quota of arms from the general government, which is determined by the report of her Adjutant General of the strength of her militia; consequently our State, by the incomplete returns which her Adjutant General is compelled to make, receives a much smaller quota than she would have received, had her officers been vigilant and punctual in making their annual returns.

Very few returns for the last year have been received If this remissness of duty cannot be be remidied otherwise, I would earnestly recommend a rigid infliction of the penalties prescribed in the twenty-sixth section of the act of 1839.

I cannot too earnestly urge upon the officers of the several divisions of the militia, to uniform themselves as required by law; unless the officers will faithfully and diligently obey the law, it cannot be expected that the privates will. I do hope that this portion of the law will be promptly complied with; if not, it should be rigidly enforced.

I shall at all times be pleased to communicate with you upon any matter tending to the advancement of the militia

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

GUSTAVUS A PARSONS,

Adjutant General of the Missouri Militia.
